Presenters ...

Aaron Likens

Aaron is the author of Finding Kansas: Decoding the Enigma of Asperger's Syndrome, and the community education specialist for TouchPoint Autism Services. In 2003, at age 20, he was diagnosed with Asperger's Syndrome. Through his shared experiences with the diagnosis, he has given to the world a revelation of how the Autism Spectrum Disorder mind works.

Dr. Colin Peeler, BCBA

Colin is the president and consultant of Behavior Consultants. He has a doctorate in psychology, master's in behavior analysis and is a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst. He has expertise in areas of early intervention for children with autism, parent and staff training, and dealing with behavior problems.

Kim Fears

Kim has been active in the field of developmental disabilities for more than 30 years in positions ranging from direct care, to owning her own emergency residential care home, to more than a decade in leadership at a large agency in Missouri. Kim has a particular interest in aging and serves on the board of the Association on Aging With Developmental Disabilities. Kim currently works with Help at Home, a large multi-state agency, in developing their program in the St. Louis area.

Lisa Cooseman, OTR/L, MS

Lisa is an occupational therapist and co-owner of Leaps and Bounds, Inc. Leaps and Bounds is a pediatric therapy center that provides occupational, physical and speech/language therapy to kids 0-18 years of age.
