The DDRB has added two new features to the website, Transition Planning Guides and Mission Moments.

Transition Planning Guides are located under the Resources tab from our home page. These guides relate to planning for different life stages from birth to retirement and beyond.

Mission Moments are located under the About Us tab and are monthly life stories of how the DDRB fulfills it's mission.

Please take a moment to visit these additions to our website and as always, feel free to share your feedback with us.
