COMPONENT 1 : Activity/accomplishments in assisting the individual supported to achieve personcentered, positive outcomes.

Explanation: Provide specific examples of how the nominee's support affected the life of the person receiving supports such as building effective relationships with family/friends; building a meaningful social network; developing opportunities to become an active, contributing member of their community; and how the nominee greatly exceeded expectations in addressing the needs of the person(s) supported.

COMPONENT 2 : Description of the relationship the nominee has developed with the person(s) he/she supports.

Explanation: Provide evidence of a strong two-way relationship between the nominee and the person(s) he/she supports. Include words or actions of the persons served that illustrate the bond with the DSP, as well as, similar evidence that the nominee shares this bond.

COMPONENT 3: Examples of advocacy or affecting change with and/or on behalf of people with disabilities.

Explanation: A) advocacy on behalf of the person served to ensure that he/she receives (for example) proper medical attention, or gets an opportunity to participate in a particular activity, program or work of his/her choosing. This is very common and does not necessarily make the DSP nominee stand out. Advocacy done WITH, not simply FOR, persons served with disabilities where the DSP had to advocate to overcome some obstacle.

B) advocacy involving things such as writing letters together to elected officials, joint participation in lobbying days, creating and
